Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra Retains e3communications for Public and Government Affairs Services

BUFFALO, NEW YORK – e3communications today announced that the agency has been retained by the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra for public and government affair services.

The world-renowned orchestra performs at Kleinhan’s Music Hall and over the decades has matured in stature under the leadership of various conductors, including JoAnn Faletta. The regular concert season features gala, pop, educational youth, and family concerts. During the summer months, the orchestra performs at parks and outdoor venues across Western New York.

With offices in Buffalo and Albany, e3communications is a full service public relations and public affairs agency that provides clients with various public relations services, including issues management, media training, crisis communications as well as government affairs services.
