Nardin Academy Retains e3communications for Public Relations Services

BUFFALO, NEW YORK – e3communications today announced that the agency has been retained by Nardin Academy. e3communications provided public relations services for the school's $3.5 million expansion project and groundbreaking ceremony.

Founded in 1857 by the Daughters of the Heart of Mary, Nardin Academy is a private independent Catholic school with a tradition of providing a strong, value centered Catholic education. Located in Buffalo, Nardin is recognized as one of the premier education opportunities in the region serving students at its co-ed elementary school and high school for young women and at its co-ed Montessori school.

With offices in Buffalo and Albany, e3communications is a full service public relations and public affairs agency that provides clients with various public relations services, including issues management, media training, crisis communications as well as government affairs services.
