

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contacts:
Ben Roberts/Laura Taczak
e3communications
716-854-8182

Old Fort Niagara Retains e3communications for Public Relations Services

BUFFALO, NEW YORK – e3communications today announced that the agency has been retained by Old Fort Niagara to provide public relations services as the historic site commemorated the 250th anniversary of the French and Indian War throughout the summer of 2009.

Located in Youngstown, New York, Old Fort Niagara is a National Historic Landmark and State Historic site operated by the Old Fort Niagara Association, a not-for-profit organization, in cooperation with the New York State Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation. Old Fort Niagara has stood at the mouth of the Niagara River since 1726 and features the "French Castle," the oldest building on the Great Lakes and a collection of original military architecture and fortifications from the 18th and 19th centuries in addition to living history events.

With offices in Buffalo and Albany, e3communications is a full service public relations and public affairs agency that provides clients with various public relations services, including issues management, media training, crisis communications as well as government affairs services. For more information please visit www.e3communications.com.